INTEREST METHODOLOGY

Bajaj Housing Finance Limited ('BHFL') has developed models for arriving at benchmark rates i.e. [BHFL (Floating Reference Rate - FRR) / Sambhav FRR rates / REBLR (Repo-External Benchmark Linked Lending Rate) / Construction Finance FRR / Institutional Reference Rate / Unsecured Reference Rate] for different type of customers such as Salaried, Self-employed and corporates / Legal Entities. The model takes into consideration among other things, BHFL's weighted average cost of funds, fund raising cost and liquidity/risk premium, negative carry on investments and expenses incurred to source the loans. For REBLR linked loans, Repo rate, Desired return on Assets and Business Strategy Premium (BSP) or Discount are also considered, in addition to the before mentioned factors. The abovementioned Benchmark / Reference rates are floating in nature and are changed based on the changes in underlying factors. Interest rates applicable on loans (visit <https://www.bajajhousingfinance.in/> for our latest rates) are linked to abovementioned Benchmark / Reference rates and varies between Home Loans & non-Home Loans, basis a credit score which includes without limitation, the following variables:

- a. Credit and default risk in the related business segment;
- b. Historical performance of similar homogeneous clients;
- c. Your profile, including employment/profession type, age, Industry segment and other details
- d. Your credit score & repayment track record as provided by Credit Information Companies ('CIC');
- e. Secured vs unsecured loans;
- f. Ticket size and tenure of loan;
- g. Location delinquency and collection performance;
- h. Your indebtedness (other existing loans).
- i. Your relationship with BHFL and repayment history;
- j. Your declared & verified income

The above mentioned variables have been recognized as material risk explaining variables during acquisition and Borrower segmentation analysis. The aforesaid is dynamic and gets revised periodically as per the existence and performance of past portfolio and hence, subject to change.

*The interest rates may also be offered at Fixed Rates or Dual Rates (Fixed + Floating).
